DETAILS OF ACTIVITY:

The motivational session on Passion- Profession- Perfection was conducted by Dr. Neha Pareek who is an academician, anchor, writer and motivational speaker for the new entrants on Sep. 19, 2023. The presenter who herself is a source of motivation to students gave encouraging examples from her own life and inspired students to be passionate for their work. She explained that passion in any profession thrives to perfection which ultimately drives towards success. She discussed the importance of positive thinking and attitude which brings optimism into life and such constructive changes can make one brighter and more successful. She insisted that Passion derives from emotions and is the motivation that makes us feel good about what we do. There is a sense of thrill and excitement, a belief that doing what we love would mean putting our every fibre into what needs to be done. Passion has to do more with your heart than your head. We need the heart element to reach our full potential because our intellectual capacity and skills can only take us so far. She further explained that being passionate is a result of feelings, and our feelings change all the time. What if passion – too much and then too little – leads to burnout? We are bound to have rough days at work, days we feel unable to navigate our myriad tasks. In that case we should work with perseverance. For example, some of us might “stumble” into jobs we probably have little or no interest in. But along the way we discover we are indeed good at our jobs, and start to care about the outcomes. We grow feelings for the work we do. This session helped students to be guided by a positive mind and driven by self-motivation. Becoming passionate and developing passion for our jobs is a better path to take.
