DETAILS OF ACTIVITY:

The Department of Computer Engineering at Poornima College of Engineering, Jaipur, hosted a session on “Self-Reflection and Growth: Personal Development Through Human Values” on 30 March, 2024. The focus of the session was on the crucial role human values play in personal development and how they contribute to continuous growth.

Participants who engage in self-reflection understand personal development as an evolving journey, guided by self-examination and the application of essential values like empathy, integrity, and resilience. For these individuals, every challenge becomes an opportunity to learn and grow, approaching personal development with an open and adaptable mindset.

In contrast, those who do not practice self-reflection may perceive personal growth as fixed and unchanging. This static view can lead to missed opportunities for advancement and a disconnect from the values that drive meaningful progress.

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of the session on “Self-Reflection and Growth: Personal Development Through Human Values” was to emphasize the importance of integrating core human values—such as empathy, integrity, and resilience—into personal development practices. The session aimed to:

Highlight the Role of Self-Reflection: To demonstrate how self-reflection can drive personal growth by encouraging individuals to continually assess and improve their actions and decisions. Contrast Growth and Fixed Mindsets: To differentiate between dynamic, growth-oriented approaches and static, fixed views of personal development, illustrating how adopting a growth mindset can enhance learning and adaptability.

Promote Human Values: To show how incorporating essential human values into daily practices can lead to more meaningful and ethical personal and professional progress.

Encourage Continuous Improvement: To motivate participants to view challenges as opportunities for learning and development, fostering an environment of ongoing self-improvement and ethical behavior.
