ABOUT THE EVENT

Vishwakarma Jayanti is a festival that celebrates the birth of Lord Vishwakarma, the divine architect and craftsman of the universe. He is the son of Lord Brahma, the creator of the universe, and the first engineer in the world. He is also the patron deity of artisans, engineers, architects, mechanics, and factory workers. Vishwakarma Jayanti is observed on the last day of the month of Bhadrapada, according to the Hindu calendar, which usually falls in September. This year, it was celebrated on September 16, 2023 by the department of mechanical Engineering, Poornima College of Engineering.

The students of the department decorated Mechanical workshop with flowers, lights, and flags, Rangoli. In this event Dr. Mahesh Bunde, Principal & Director, PCE perform all the rituals such as puja (worship), aarti (offering), and havan (fire sacrifice). During this event as a special guest Dr. Vivek Vijay, Associate Professor, IIT Jodhpur along with Dr. Pankaj Dhemla, Vice Principal, PCE, Dr. Narayan Lal Jain, HoD, ME and heads of department were present. During this occasion tools and machines, were also tied kalawa and offered pooja for seeking their blessings for success, innovation, and prosperity in their respective trades. Students & faculty members & staff present during the event also offered their prayers and gratitude to all the tools and equipment, which are considered as extensions of Lord Vishwakarma's power. At the end sweets and prasad (sacred food) was distribute among attendees. The event was coordinated by Dr. Raj Kumar Satankar from Mechanical Engineering Department.

Vishwakarma Jayanti is not only a religious observance but also a celebration of the talent, hard work, and contribution of artisans and craftsmen to society. It promotes the idea that every form of work, no matter how humble, is a valuable service to the world. It also encourages people to respect their tools and machines as divine gifts and use them wisely and ethically. It also inspires people to learn new skills and enhance their creativity.
