ABOUT THE SEMINAR:

In India, the Government sector is one of the largest employments providing sectors and every year lakhs of candidates are given an opportunity to join this sector and enjoy the perks of being a government employee. Given below are the major benefits of cracking the various competitive exams to get appointed in the Government, Insurance or Banking sector:

- Job Security: There is a hundred percent job security for employees in the Government sector
- Financial Security: It is a well-known fact that the income, perks, benefits and allowances contribute as one of the major reasons for the attraction of candidates in this sector
- Status Quo: One of the most respectable industries to work in is the Government or the Banking industry
- Work-Life Balance: With scheduled working hours, there is a proper balance between work and personal life
- Contentment: Qualifying the competitive exams and joining any respectable Organisation gives the candidates a sense of achievement and contentment

A competitive examination is an examination where candidates are ranked based on their knowledge, will power shows in the examination. There are various competitive examinations held for various posts at different sectors. Some of the competitive exams are held by colleges, universities or institutions as entrance exams to select eligible candidates for particular courses or positions. Other type of exams like TNPSC (Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission) SSC

(Staff Selection Commission), UPSC (Union Public Service Commission), RRB (Railway Recruitment Board), IBPS (Indian Banking Public Sector), are the examinations for fulfilling required positions in public sectors. In this research, the government examinations are taken under study to determine students' awareness and attitude towards it. These various selections in public sector have some eligibility criteria or instructions in conducting and selecting candidates to attend exam and positions vacant. In that same way there was an easy criterion to be follow for preparing examor simply say steps to prepare for those government examinations. If you have written any examinations before or planning to take those exams in near future but don't have idea how to prepare for the exam, then following steps will help for making the preparation into best way along with expecting fair amount of luck.

The steps are:

- Refer, is the test is for you?

Before choosing the type of government exam to attend or before preparation begins for that exam, check whether the exam you selected suits for you in some eligibility criteria like education level, percentage of marks required, grade point required or need any experience, eligibility in age level so on that applies to exam selected.

- Go back with your fundamentals: Once you come to know that you are qualify for the exam chooses, it is important to bush upon fundamentals with text books, notes studied at grade school either it is Mathematics, Science, English, or with the subjects like social studies, General knowledge.
- Be up to date: Keen your knowledge upto date in area of general awareness, current affairs and also check frequently on changes in the examination's announcement or any other upcoming exams might suitable for your qualification.
