Every year on April 22, Earth Day marks the anniversary of the birth of the modern environmental movement in 1970.

Earth helps in sustaining life on Earth. In our entire solar system, Earth is the only planet that has the right amenities (air and water) to support life on it. Through ages, Earth has provided us, i.e. mankind, with every kind of resource available to make our life as smooth as possible. Be it fresh drinking water, enough oxygen, proper landform, or proper climate to harbour life, Earth has given us everything we need.

Objective:

Teaching about pollution is an essential part of Earth Day because it helps students understand the consequences of not protecting the Earth. It can be much easier to prevent pollution than to remedy it later.

Students can experience the effects of pollution on a small scale in the classroom.

About the Earth Day

Earth Day is celebrated annually on April 22 to spread awareness about environmental protection and acknowledge the global climate crisis. Earth Day was founded in 1970 by a person in America. That name was Senator Gaylord Nelson.

With every passing day, the climate is getting worse and it is our duty to save and conserve mother nature. This year the theme for Earth Day is “Invest in Our Planet.” The theme focuses on acting in a bold way, innovating in a broad way, and implementing in an equitable manner. This day is celebrated to make people aware of how they can be an advantage in saving the Earth from pollution, global warming, and water scarcity.

Execution:

Our department celebrated Earth Day through a series of activities on 22nd April. The assembly held a half an hour session on steps that every student can take on an individual level. It included basic habits like switching off electrical appliances when not in use. Many creative actions like reuse of old clothes, recycling of paper etc. The best part of the day was the Eco-competition where the group of students from each class were to bring anything made out of reused materials. Students made amazing and creative products like wall hangings, cards, pen stands, bags, paper box and even beautiful dresses. The day was marked not only by awareness but also enthusiasm on the part of the students.

OUTCOME:

Protecting Mother Earth should be our foremost duty. If we don't protect our planet, then after some years, all the resources that we get from Earth will be exhausted. So while we still have time, we must take proper and effective measures to make sure that our future generations can also use these resources. Let's have a look at all the actions we can take to protect our planet.

- The first way by which we can preserve our resources is by utilising less land for cultivation. Large areas of forest are cleared every year to make space for cultivation. We should try to grow crops that require less area, and this can be done through the crop rotation technique.
- Instead of using non-renewable energies, We should focus on renewable resources like solar energy, wind energy, hydropower etc.
- We should plant more trees and maintain a proper balance between human beings and nature.

♦ OBJECTIVE:

- The aim behind organizing this program was to give awareness to people about keeping the environment clean and safe from pollution.
- For this purpose, plant more trees to purify the air and make the earth green.
- The sports department gave a sapling to each student and asked them to plant it around the campus.

♦ DETAILS OF ACTIVITY:

The first-ever Environment Day was held in 1973. Environment Day acts as a platform that helps create awareness about various issues that have adverse effects on the environment, like global warming, overpopulation, pollution, and crime against wildlife.

♦ ABOUT THE ENVIRONMENT DAY

Environment day is celebrated worldwide on 5th June to create awareness among people about protecting the environment. The first-ever Environment Day was held in 1973. Environment Day acts as a platform that helps create awareness about various issues that have adverse effects on the environment, like global warming, overpopulation, pollution, and crime against wildlife.

The environment plays an integral role in maintaining the balance of the ecosystem we live in. Most people don't understand the importance of the environment and end up damaging it with their various activities. If we continue to degrade the environment, in the long run, the adverse effects will affect human beings too. So, to protect the environment, one should focus on sustainable development. In this way, the demands of human beings will be met without overexploiting the natural resources of the environment.

♦ EXECUTION:

Commemorating the day, the civil engineering department of Poornima college of engineering decided to conduct a small celebration with the students. The function was organized by . Mohammed Tarique with faculty coordinators .The event started with the Balwan Sheshma who delivered an excellent speech for the younger generation of Engineers. He pointed out the importance of environment day and how we can save our nature and earth.

He also added that we should also motivate others to keep their environment clean free of pollution so that we can live a healthy life. It was the pleasurable activity we enjoyed most and promised with our principal to plant more trees in our surroundings.

Students of Civil Department started planting and the teachers guided them in this regard. Some students cleaned the campus. The gardener surveyed the entire campus and made sure that planting is done appropriately. After this, the students were directed to reach the auditorium where the principal gave a speech in which he encouraged students to participate in these activities.

Every year, a theme is picked out for World Environment Day that encourages people to participate in the celebration and also motivates them to follow the theme. This year's theme is, 'Only one Earth' that is living sustainably in harmony with nature.

♦ OUTCOME:

The Environment is one of the most important tools for our survival on planet Earth. The Environment nurtures us and helps us survive. We cannot imagine life without air, water and soil. The biotic components like plants and animals are also important survival tools. Plants help purify the air around us. We get food from plants and animals.

The concept of celebrating World Environment Day was first conceptualized in 1972's United Nations Conference on Human Environment that was held in Stockholm. This became the first big conference where matters of the environment were given huge importance. The United Nations Environment Programme was also created at this conference.

FEEDBACK / ATTAINMENTS:

This day honors the women who have paved the path towards our progress and struggled to take ‘womanhood’ to the level where it is now. Unfortunately, at the same time, the day is a reminder of the discrimination and inequality that still continues to plague our society. This special day, dedicated to women around the world, is a celebration of the great success of women across all spheres of life as well as shaping the future. All felt very happy and Delightful after celebrating Women’s Day.
