DEPARTMENT: THE DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING

EXPERT SESSION: On Environmental Cause

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Achintya Bezbaruah is the Gehrts Presidential Professor of environmental engineering at North Dakota State University (NDSU), and the Director of NDSU NAE Grand Challenges Scholars Program. With more than 60 peer-viewed publications and multiple patents, his research group works on environmental nanotechnology and food-environment-water systems (FEWS). The group's work involves applying nanomaterials for arsenic and fluoride removal from drinking water and developing the next generation of fertilizers and pesticides, including fortification of food crops with nutrients and micronutrients. Bezbaruah has procured research grants from the United States Department of Agriculture, the National Institute of Food and Agriculture, the National Science Foundation, and the United States Geological Survey. Most of his funded projects are multidisciplinary. Originally from the Northeast Indian State of Assam, he received his BS in Civil Engineering (1987) from Assam and M. Tech from IIT-Bombay (1993). Before moving to the United States, he was a faculty member in Assam Engineering College (1988-1999). While in Assam, he started a mass movement to preserve wetlands in Assam including the Guwahati-based Deepor Beel wetland. ♦ FLYER / POSTER:

BRIEF BIODATA OF RESOURCE PERSON:

Ms. Aditi Dadhicch has been Master Trainer for RICEM(Rajasthan Institution of Corporate Education and Management), Axis bank, MSME(2012) BPCL (Bharat Petroleum), HPCL(Hindustan Petroleum) , Genus Inverters, IL&FS Skills, B.Lal Biotechnology to name a few. She is alumni from XLRI, Jamshedpur and Banasthali Vidhyapeeth. Facilitated Soft Skills training for the staff of the President Estate, at the Rashtrapati Bhawan under recognition of Prior Learning, Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yogna.

ABSTRACT OF THE SESSION:

During her talk, Ms. Aditi Dadhicch mentioned that contrary to your common sense and belief, one's attitude is more important than one's intelligence. There are two core mindsets that determine one's attitude - fixed and growth.

If one has a fixed mindset, one is likely to believe that one cannot grow intellectually and will remain limited by failure. The real problem arises when one is faced with a challenging scenario that appears to be more than one can handle, one is bound to feel hopeless and overwhelmed.

People with a growth mindset believe that putting in effort with help them improve. This mindset itself enables them to outperform those with a fixed mind set even in a case there they may have a lower IQ. The biggest enabler of this mindset is that because they embrace challenges, and use these challenges as opportunities to grow.

Here are the main attitudes of someone with a fixed mindset versus someone with a growth mindset.

To acknowledge and embrace one's weakness, learn to give and receive constructive criticism, intelligence and talent is dynamic and ever improving, prioritize learning over seeking approval and one should focus on the process instead of the end result.

Ms. Aditi mentioned that when you dream big and have a dedication to achieve these dream goals, barriers like language, or small town become secondary. During the program many students asked various questions and query and all were addressed well by the expert. The session was very nice and informative and we are all looking forward for the positive outcomes of the learning and corporate era of growth mindset.

ABSTRACT OF THE SESSION:

"The Purpose of Education - Mental Balance"

Teaching is a remarkably rewarding pursuit if one is able to enable and empower learners. However, it is also about being a confident and committed teacher with a sound balance of a healthy mind and a healthy body. Nowadays, the importance of physical and mental well-being of teachers and students needs to be stressed more than ever. Education or any activity that involves an exchange of knowledge should involve a consistent focus on mental and physical wellness. Let us look at some of the crucial aspects that can guide us about focusing on the overall well-being of our teachers and students. To understand how to make balance in mental and emotional health in education for both teacher and student. Teachers and students need to be healthy and happy. Any teaching or learning activity is incomplete without the inclusion of physical and mental fulfillment. Any study-plan that doesn't focus on nutrition and exercise fails to create happy teachers and students.

Meditation sessions are highly beneficial for everyone including those actively involved in the pursuit of knowledge. Practicing yoga and physical fitness helps trigger hormones within the brain which reduce stress. Students and teachers must be oriented through multiple sensitization programs about the importance of opening up as well as being mindful about what their colleagues might be going through.

Schools must think out of the box and deliver holistic solutions that would ensure both mental and physical well-being of teachers and students. These solutions should be implemented consistently keeping their long term impact in mind.

Report

We all know that women are the foundation of every society. Women have done wonders, and can do a lot in the society, in my opinion a woman can change anything and everything.Women with more years of education earn more and contribute more to higher rates of economic growth at the national level. We talk about democracy, liberalization but actually we don't adhere to these words, these words have merely got the status of being in books and in group discussion forums. We talk about education and getting open minded, but it's all acoustic. Frequency on which we think needs a change. I do believe that we need a safe setting for girls and women to work on gender issues.

On July 17, 2020, i.e., on Friday a webinar on "Gender Equality and Woman Rights"was organized at Poornima College of Eng. & Technology in Association with RTU,Kota

Gender Equality and Woman Rights in India

Recent data released by the National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) suggest that the nationwide lockdown has led to a rapid increase in cases of domestic violence. The data, which is categorized according to cases in different states, suggest that Uttarakhandrecorded the highest number of domestic violence cases in the last two months of lockdown.Haryana ranks on number two and the national capital Delhi on number three.

The Novel Corona disease not only had medical practitioners, scientists and other frontline workers overworked, even social scientists, lawyers, social scientists had their hands full and occupied. The Novel virus resulted in one of the largest migration in history of world with migrants moving across the highways on foot, in scorching heat, in trains and buses

.However what remains the same despite a span of almost 7 decades is that women and children remain as vulnerable as ever.

People were directed to stay indoors and political and bureaucratic machinery went full unroute to implement the lockdown with police personnel deployed out on the streets to prevent any movement unless in case of emergency.

While deserted streets may have brought a ray of hope for the government which bought some time to develop and implement some strategies for the containment of the virus, it crushed the tiniest semblance of hope for a large number of vulnerable sections of society;women and children, and exposed them to the danger of domestic violence and made situations worse for the ones who were already facing it .Trapped inside their houses they had no escape from the perpetuators

How lockdown has been breeding ground of fresh cases of domestic violence and worsenedthe existing ones was evident from surge of phone calls to the helpline numbers of variousgovernment and non–government organizations. The lockdown has impacted the economicand social aspect of country and almost all strata of society has borne the brunt in some ways or other. Number of researches show that insecurity has high co-relation with negative emotions like stress, anxiety, restlessness, irritability and anger issues. The permission to open liquor outlets with lockdown still in progress saw the plight of women increase manifold and were subjected to domestic violence in its worst form ever.

The numerous calls to helpline numbers are just the tip of the iceberg. Many cases of physical, mental, psychological, emotional and sexual abuse went unnoticed and notreported. There must thousands and lakh of women who were beaten mercilessly, abused emotionally and must have faced marital rape resulting in unwanted pregnancies with no discretion on their part to decide whether to continue or discard the pregnancy , left with little or absolutely no reproductive rights to exercise.

From opening liquor outlets, to flooding social media with distasteful sexist jokes, the lockdown had been absolutely blind to woes of women who worked from home with additional burden of daily chores which was reduced because of house helps who couldn't move due to lockdown, to physical, mental, psychological, emotional and sexual abuse at hands of intimate partners and family members. Why the lockdown was imposed in such ahaste with no prior planning and consideration of women facing domestic violence is largely due to patriarchal mind set of society that overlook insignificant matters like domestic violence in times of a pandemic where only medical and economic concerns deserve attention.

Domestic violence results in adverse effects on physical, mental, psychological, emotional,sexual and reproductive health of the survivor and as largest democracy in world we must take care of safety and well-being of half of our population. The pandemic should not givebirth to another pandemic, that of domestic violence and while we are hopeful that soon a solution in terms of vaccine may be available for corona virus, it will take an exceptionallylong to find a solution to the of domesticviolence keeping into account our social, legal and psychological limitations

Every person deserves to reach her or his full potential, but gender inequalities in their livesand in the lives of those who care for them hinder this reality.

Across India gender inequality results in unequal opportunities, and while it impacts on thelives of both genders, statistically it is women that are the most disadvantaged.

The principle of gender equality is enshrined in the Indian Constitution in its Preamble, Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties and Directive Principles. The Constitution not only grants equality to women, but also empowers the State to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favour of women. So in my lecture I deal with the various constitutional rights guaranteed to woman under Constitution of India and various legal rights available to her in other laws of India

This includes butis not limited to: women's economic rights, Women's and girl's participation at all levels, including peace building, and the elimination of all forms of violence against all women and girls. Sexual and reproductive health and rights are inseparable from gender equality and elementary to the aim of this agenda for transformationalchange.

Good seminar. Should be conducted on regular basis.
I could not attend the Webinar due to some technical problem. Sorry for that, I have seen on the face book link which you have sent. As Prof. R.A. Gupta, Honable V.C. of RTU Kota suggested that there is nodifference between men & women in our mind. Therefore, first set yourmind at ground level. In relation to this I suggested in four lines of Poet Indiver that - " Maan ki gaurai ke aage roop ki daulat kuch bhi nahin, yah roop ki daulat kuch bhi nahin, Manav ka maan yadi sunderhai to iski jaroorat kuch bhi nahin." In fact we can achieve our goal by following the aforesaid lines honestly.(म न क ग र ई क आ ग प क द ल त क छ भ न ह ं, य ह प क द ल त क छ भ न ह ं | म न व क म न य द ि स ह त ो इस क ज र त क छ भ न ह ं ॥)

A proficiency module including Role Play as an activity was conducted for the students of all the branches in the seminar hall. The test helped them to improvise their communication skills and also combat stage fear. For the students of other group, picture perception test was conducted, prior to that a brief introduction was given to them. This enhanced their observational and comprehensive skills. The test was successfully conducted and this benefited the students to a very great extent. The proficiency module was used to overcome critical lacunas that students might have, for example, English and computer familiarity among others. The students have overcome the lacunas substantially. We hope that problems arising due to lack of English skills, wherein students start lagging behind or failing in several subjects, for no fault of theirs, would, hopefully, became a thing of the past. The sessions were well received by the students. Interaction of students with Neema Shukla (Chief Librarian) also turned out to be very informative. . Students of First year attended Writer‟s Voice Society's orientation program. Writer's Voice Society a well-renowned organization in the field of literature and has been conducting one of the best Open Mics all over Jaipur. Where, students were able to understand the various dimensions involved in creative writing. It proved to be very motivational for all the keen and creative minds having skills in Poetry, Storytelling and Stand-up Comedy.

ABOUT OF THE SESSION:

The main objective of this session was providing access to the best quality learning resources across the country, the project 'Study Webs of Active Learning for Young Aspiring Minds' (SWAYAM) has been started. SWAYAM provides an integrated platform and portal for online courses, using information and communication technology (ICT) and covering High School till all higher education subjects and skill sector courses to ensure that every student benefits from learning material through ICT. SWAYAM is a:

1. One-stop web and mobile based interactive e-content for all courses from High School to University level.

2. High quality learning experience using multimedia on anytime, anywhere basis.

3. State of the art system that allows easy access, monitoring and certification.

4. Peer group interaction and discussion forum to clarify doubts

5. Hybrid model of delivery that adds to the quality of classroom teaching. Whereas, SWAYAM involves development of Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) compliant e-content (video and text) and building a robust IT platform.

communication abilities needed for success on the job. Time Management and Organization Skills characterize how a person interacts in his or her relationships with others. Time Management and Organization Skills include adaptability, attitude, communication, creative thinking, work ethic, teamwork, networking, decision-making, positivity, time management, motivation, flexibility, problem-solving, critical thinking, and conflict resolution.

DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENTS:

Time Management plays a very important role not only in organizations but also in our personal lives.

Time Management includes:

Effective Planning

Setting goals and objectives

Setting deadlines

Delegation of responsibilities

Prioritizing activities as per their importance

Spending the right time on the right activity

Effective Planning

Plan your day well in advance. Prepare a To-Do List or a "TASK PLAN". Jot down the important activities that need to be done in a single day against the time that should be allocated to each activity.

High Priority work should come on top followed by those which do not need much of your importance at the moment. Complete pending tasks one by one. Do not begin fresh work unless you have finished your previous task. Tick the ones you have already completed. Ensure you finish the tasks within the stipulated time frame.

Setting Goals and Objectives

Working without goals and targets in an organization would be similar to a situation where the captain of the ship loses his way in the sea. Yes, you would be lost. Set targets for yourself and make sure they are realistic ones and achievable.

Setting Deadlines

Set deadlines for yourself and strive hard to complete tasks ahead of the deadlines. Do not wait for your superiors to ask you every time. Learn to take ownership of work. One person who can best set the deadlines is you yourself. Ask yourself how much time needs to be devoted to a particular task and for how many days. Use a planner to mark the important dates against the set deadlines.

Delegation of Responsibilities

Learn to say "NO" at workplace. Don't do everything on your own. There are other people as well. One should not accept something which he knows is difficult for him.

Dr. Mahesh Bundele

The roles and responsibilities must be delegated as per interest and specialization of employees for them to finish tasks within deadlines. A person who does not have knowledge about something needs more time than someone who knows the work well.

Prioritizing Tasks

Prioritize the tasks as per their importance and urgency. Know the difference between important and urgent work. Identify which tasks should be done within a day, which all should be done within a month and so on. Tasks which are most important should be done earlier.

Spending the right time on right activity

Develop the habit of doing the right thing at the right time. Work done at the wrong time is not of much use. Don't waste a complete day on something which can be done in an hour or so. Also keep some time separate for your personal calls or checking updates on Facebook or Twitter. After all human being is not a machine.

For Effective Time Management one needs to be:

Organized - Avoid keeping stacks of file and heaps of paper at your workstation. Throw what all you don't need. Put important documents in folders. Keep the files in their respective drawers with labels on top of each file. It saves time which goes on unnecessary searching.

Don't misuse time - Do not kill time by loitering or gossiping around. Concentrate on your work and finish assignments on time. Remember your organization is not paying you for playing games on computer or peeping into other's cubicles. First complete your work and then do whatever you feel like doing. Don't wait till the last moment.

Be Focused - One needs to be focused for effective time management.

Develop the habit of using planners, organizers, table top calendars for better time management. Set reminders on phones or your personal computers.

DETAILS OF TECHNOLOGICAL / PRACTICAL LEARNINGS:

Women are the core of the existence of any and every part of the universe. It is indispensable to overlook their valuable contribution. Keeping in pace with the present requisites, IETE propose-week a training program on “Internet Uses" under the banner of‘Digital India’. “A great endeavor requires expert guidance.” A one-day workshop activity was organized by the department of Electronics and Communication Engineering, Poornima College of Engineering on 24th July 2017. This was a noble effort supported byDr. Om Prakash Sharma, Director, Poornima College of Engineering, and Dr. Garima Mathur, Head Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering in which 7 students of 3rd year, Khushboo Chhabra, Jyoti Singh, Laksh, Prashant, Arya Rawat, Ayushi Parashar, Divya along with 3 faculty members, Gaurav Saxena, Manish Kumar Sharma, Anila Dhingra visited Chaksu village. In Chaksu, they went to the school UniqueShine Children Academy. Our efforts for creating were mutually supported by Mr. TrilokKumar Sharma, Principal of Unique Shine Children Academy.

This was a women-centric activity that aimed to enlighten urban/rural housewives about the wonders that internet technology offers in easing day-to-day life. The students gave PowerPoint presentations about the use of various policies of government such as Net Banking, Aadhar card, and Bhamashah card i.e., how they can be useful to smoothen dailylife. Students also created awareness amo[illegible] women about the uses and the bits of internet banking in rural areas. Students told them about:

- Net Banking: Net banking also known as internet banking, e-banking or virtual banking, is an electronic payment system that enables customers of a bank or other financial institution to Conduct a range of financial transactions through the financial institution's website. The online banking system typically connects to be part of the core banking system operated by a bank and is in contrast to branch banking which was the traditional way customers accessed banking services. Women in rural areas were not aware of thinking and how to transfer their money from one account to another account.
- Aadhar card: Students told them what aadhar card is; The Aadhaar UID Card is produced and distributed by the Unique Identification Authority of India (UIDAI). It is the largest personal identification program the world has ever witnessed. Over 1.2 billion people are eligible to receive the Aadhaar card. The only requirement to be eligible for an Aadhaar card is that every person must be a permanent resident of India. They told them what the importance of Aadhar card is and why it is needed for everyone.
- Bhamashah Card: Bhamashah Yojana is a scheme introduced by the Government of Rajasthan to transfer financial and non-financial benefits of governmental schemes directly to recipients in a transparent way. Education is not only an instrument ofenhancing efficiency but also an effective tool of augmenting and widening democratic participation and upgrading the overall quality of individuals and Society. India has a vastpopulation and to capture the potential demographic dividend, and remove acute regional,social, and gender imbalances, the Government and various private organizations are committed making concerted efforts for improving the quality of education in rural areas for women.

- Women's education in ancient India was quite good but in the middle age has deteriorated because of restrictions against women. However, again it is getting better and better day by day as modern people in India understand that without the growth and development ofwomen, the development of the country is not possible. It then is very true that equal growth of both males and females will increase development in every area of the country.

- The other policies which were introduced by students to women were:-
- Sarwa Shiksha Abhiyan
- Indira Mahila Yojana
- Balika Samridhi Yojana
- Rashtriya Mahila Kosh
- Mahila Samridhi Yojana
- Employment and Income Generating Training-cum-Production Centers
