Ref: Directives of the Supreme Court of India, dated May 16, 2007 in SLP No. (s) 24295 of 2006. University of Kerala Vs Council, Principals', Colleges, Kerala & Ors with SLP(C) No. 24296-99/2004 & W.P. (Crl) No. 173/2006 and SLP(C) No. 14356/2005) and Civil Appeal no. 887 of 887 of 2009 dated May 8, 2009.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India admitted and heard the above referred SLPs in relation to the menace of ragging in Technical Institutions/Universities/Colleges in the Country. In this connection, a committee headed by Dr. R.K. Raghavan, former Director of CBI, for giving specific recommendations on effective prevention of ragging in educational institutions was constituted by the apex court. Accordingly, the Committee had carried out a very detailed study on the various factors contributing for ragging and collected the public opinion. Further, the Committee had submitted a detailed report with suitable recommendations and measures required to effectively curb the menace. The recommendations of the Committee were duly accepted. The following directives have been issued to all the educational institutes for necessary implementation by the Hon'ble Court and this institute proposes to follow them.

UNDERTAKING : ATTENDANCE

I _____ son/daughter of _____ a student of _____ in Branch _____ Year _____ Semester _____, Poornima Foundation is undergoing full time _____ course.

I fully understand that this course is a full time course which requires the attendance obligation of 75% in order to be eligible to appear in the University Examination. The absence due to medical grounds, emergency situations, family obligations and other pressing engagements do not provide for any relaxation in the attendance criteria.

1. I also understand that the attendance is taken in every period (lecture/Tutorial/special lecture/Lab.) by the faculty member and is compiled on fortnightly basis by Secrecy cell.
2. I also understand that students having attendance less than 75% as on last day of every Month will have to take written permission from Director of Institute, Poornima Foundation to continue attending the classes.
3. I also understand that students who have attendance between 70% to 75% prior to MSE would be debarred from appearing in one Practical/Theory subject of MSE.
4. I also understand that students who have attendance between 60% to 70% prior to MSE would be debarred from appearing in two Practical/Theory Subjects of MSE.
5. I also understand that students who have attendance below 60% prior to MSE would be debarred from appearing in three Practical/Theory Subjects of MSE.
6. I also understand that the criteria for appearing in ESE would be the same as mentioned at point's no. 3, 4 & 5 above.
7. I also understand that the students having overall semester attendance less than 75% on the last teaching day of the semester will be debarred from appearing in some / all Theory & Practical Examination of University
8. I also know that the participation in extra and co-curricular activities and off-campus placement activities approved by the University will be compensated @ 5 attendances per working day. For individual participation in such activities outside the institution the students must have prior written permission of Tutor and the same should be submitted to Secrecy Cell on Next working day by the tutor.

As on _____ I have attended _____ no. of classes out of _____ no. of classes held. I understand that as per academic calendar provided to me for the current semester of _____ teaching days, total _____ classes would be conducted and I will not be eligible for appearing in University Examination if I attend less than 75% (_____ no.) classes. As per my present calculation I will have to attend _____ no. of classes out of _____ no. of classes before last teaching day of the semester.

I am fully aware of my deficiency / performance and I undertake to improve the same before MSE

I will also regularly inform about my attendance to my parents and explain them the importance of the same on my career.

May god bless me and give me strength to complete my degree with outstanding performance.
